The Annual General Meeting of the Port Lincoln Chamber of Commerce and Tourism was conducted last night at the City of Port Lincoln Council Chambers. The meeting was attended by a number of guests including Member for Flinders Peter Treloar.

After all office bearer positions were declared vacant, Mr Treloar called for nominations for the position of Chairman and 5CC General Manager Greg Bakker was re-elected to the position for a third term.

Vice Chair is Business Development Advisor with RDA, Charmaine Triffitt

Secretary Emma Forster from Swim with the Tuna

Assistant Secretary Katherine Arthur of the Port Lincoln Hotel

Treasurer is Alliance One Credit Union Manager Derry Moldrich

And Minute Secretary Anne Marie Hammond from Career Employment Group

The remainder of the Committee is made up of other high profile members of Port Lincoln Business Community including Max Coulson, Tony Baj, Mark Benford, Andrew Wright, Rob Watson, Andrew Fitzgerald, Damien Smart and Janet Norris.

One further committee member is yet to be appointed and will be announced at Chamber's ordinary monthly meeting on Wednesday April 24th.

Chairman Greg Bakker said the next 12 months would see Chamber further embrace modern communications technology in a bid to further increase membership and launch additional innovative projects to assist businesses and tourism operators throughout the city.
